

Andrew Netto (MAL)

Andrew Netto is one of the hottest comedians in the Malaysian circuit having considerable success in the local and international comedy scene. He is described as the comic with more spin than a high speed turbine, with his twist and insights in the daily workings of the average Joe.

The Malaysian is a regular feature in The Comedy Club KL shows and has performed or emceed dozens of the highly popular comedy show. He does his routine alongside seasoned international comedians and holds his ground despite his young age.

His highlights are performances with comedian Ahmed Ahmed and Maz Jobrani in 2011, and mega comedian Russell Peters in 2012 in front of an audience of 8,000 pax.

With his yearly show "Andrew Netto Live", Andrew showcases his skills in entertaining his audience solo. The 1.5 hours laugh-out-loud show is where he continually displays his amazing ability to take the most mundane things in life and twist it into comedy.

The corporate world has also welcome Andrew Netto with clients like P1 Wimax, HSBC, Guinness, Malaysian Airline, Tourism Malaysia and more. His ability to do comedy and doubling up as an Emcee gives him the extra edge making him a real favourite with corporations.

Andrew Netto has been busy with performances in Australia, Singapore and numerous shows with The Comedy Club KL. He was also the emcee for the 15,000 people strong St.Patrick's Day celebration and is in the Malaysia Book of Records for "The First Stand-up Comedy Performance on a Plane". The ambitious young man has been quoted as saying that life is full of little pleasures and laughing is just one of them. Andrew Netto is primed to be the next Malaysian comedy superstar.

Andrew Netto lives with his life quote "Live Life To The Fullest, There's Plenty Of Time To Be Dead".
